Democratic Convention

Held in Pikeville Last Saturday--A. D. Hargis Nominated.

The Democratic convention of the 11th., Floterial District met at Pike on Saturday October the 14th, 1916 as per call of the Committee. The convention was called to order by the Hon. F. S. Ferguson, Chairman, and the permanent organization resulted in the election of the Hon. W. B. Stewart, of Sequatchie County as Chairman, and C. M. Clark, of VanBuren, as Secretary. The Chair appointed the usual committees, and while the committees was out a call was made for the Hon. E. N. Haston, of VanBuren, the nominee for Senator for the 9th., dist. to address the convention. Mr. Haston responded in a forcible manner.

The committee on resolution reported and the administration, of all the democrats from Woodson was endorsed, and the report adopted.

Upon motion which prevailed, the chair appointed the following committeemen for the ensuing two years:

N. J. Furgerson; of Bledsoe, Pikeville Tenn., G. W. Davenport; of Cumberland, Grassy Cove, Tenn., O. W. Hembry; of Grundy, Tracy City, Tenn.; Dr. R. E. Standifer, of Sequatchie, Dunlap, Tenn.; M. C. Sparkman, of VanBuren, Spencer, Tenn., W. C. Abernathy; chair-man, Tracy City Tenn.

The convention went into the nomination of a representative calling counties in order: Bledsoe County nominated the Hon. A. D. Hargis, of Grundy County, and there being no other candidates the nomination was made unanimous or by acclamation. The chair appointed Messrs. J. R. Collier; T. D. Wilson and Dr. Hembree to escort the Hon. A. D. Hargis, the nominee to the room, who after being introduced by Dr. Hembree in a few well chosen words, addressed the convention in a forceful manner, and accepted the nomination.

Mr. Hargis is a Confederate Veteran, and shows the frost of many winters. He is highly commended by his people as a man of high character, honesty, sobriety and morality.

Elder J. D. Northcutt has returned from Huntland, where he held a very successful revival.
